

Smart Practical Coats!

Last week we requested New York manufacturers to show us their snappiest styles in Coats for women and misses, and we secured the cream of their newest models. Customers are already enthusiastic over our new arrivals. Each day brings new coats, each coat reveals something new. For variety and newness visit our coat department.

4---Days' Special---4

1 lot of Gingham, 12 1/2c value, sale, per yard.....	9 1-2c
500 yards Brown Crash, 10c value, sale, per yard.....	8c
1 lot of Bleached Cotton Towels, each.....	8c
1 lot of Plaid Gingham, 25c value, sale, per yard.....	17c

Glove Specials

GLOVES—odd and broken sizes, also soiled—to close out as follows:—

$1.50 White and Black Silk Gloves (long) sale, per pair.....	$1.25
1 lot of Gloves, $1.25 value, sale, per pair.....	.69c
1 lot of Gloves, $1.50 and 1.25 value, sale per pair.....	.75c
1 lot of Gloves, 50c value, sale, per pair.....	15c and 39c
1 lot of Colored Mitts, 75c value, per pair.....	15c

The Only Store in the City Selling
Kolorfast Kloth

KOLORFAST KLOTHS
GUARANTEED
SUNFAST — TUBFAST

Guaranteed
Sunfast and Tubfast
Prices
15c, 22c and 25c Yard

SEE OUR WINDOW DISPLAY

THE HOMER FITTS COMPANY

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

TUESDAY, APRIL 25, 1911.

Weather Prediction.

Fair to-night; cooler in east portion. Wednesday fair; moderate north winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

New coats at Fitts'.
Visit Ross' barber shop for prompt service.

Wash dresses $1.00 and up at the Vaughan store.

Remember the "Standard Patterns" for fit, everyone says.

Eara White went to Waterbury today on a business visit.

Peter Visconti has finished work in the Diversi Fruit store.

Harley Houghton passed Sunday with friends in Williamstown.

James Johnston of Northfield was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Ladies' and gents' sample umbrellas, one-third off the price at Abbott's.

We have a large assortment of bulk and package seeds: Eastman Bros.

A. W. Elmore of Williamstown was in the city yesterday on business.

W. G. Sanborn of Bradford was in the city yesterday on a business trip.

E. L. Wells of Lyndonville was in the city yesterday on a business trip.

A son was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. William Rust of Blackwell street.

Miss Rose Cook is detained from her duties in the Vaughan store on account of illness.

Albert Paterson of Richmond was among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

The civic federation will meet in the library building Thursday, April 27, at 3 o'clock.

Dr. C. W. Steele has moved his office from the Worth block to a suite in the Howland building.

William Stewart went to Bethel today, where he has employment at his trade as a stonecutter.

G. F. McCurdy of Boston, traveling agent for the Rock Island lines, was in the city today on business.

Dean Blodgett has resumed his duties with F. D. Ladd & Co., after a few days' absence on account of illness.

William Mitchell leaves to-night for Revere Beach, Mass., where he will be employed during the summer months.

Did you procure one of those waists with embroidered collar, cuffs and pocket to match, for $1.00 at Vaughan's?

Rev. M. S. O'Donnell of Randolph was in the city today, the guest of Rev. P. M. McKenna at the rectory on Summer street.

Miss E. P. Mair of Aberdeen, Scotland, has opened up a millinery parlor at 11 Cottage street, where all orders will be carefully attended.

The regular meeting of Granite City lodge, No. 533, N. E. O. P., will be held in Foresters' hall Tuesday evening, April 25, at 7:30 o'clock.

The members of the K. O. H., will meet at Miss Dorothy Cordier's this evening, April 25, at 7 o'clock. All members are requested to attend.

Rev. W. C. McIntyre, formerly of the Presbyterian church of this city, who is to be one of the speakers at the Canadian club banquet, arrived in the city this afternoon.

"Foley," the officer as a waitress in the famous soup case, is worth hearing, as well as the other fifteen speaking parts, at Howland hall Tuesday evening, May 2.

Mrs. Ernest E. Snow, who has been visiting her brother, W. H. Snow, and also Mrs. E. C. Brock of Washington street, left this forenoon for her home in Hanover, N. H.

C. McCue of New York City, a construction engineer employed by the Westchester Engineering Co., arrived in the city last night and will be engaged on the building work of the new federal building.

Don't make any engagements for Friday evening, April 28. Come to the benefit dance under the auspices of the degree of Pocahontas. Dancing from 8 to 12. Music, Bruce's orchestra. Admission 50 cents a couple, extra ladies 15 cents.

George Hazard, an eccentric dancer, was the vaudeville offering at the Bijou last night. Mr. Hazard comes well recommended as he was formerly a member of the "Follies of 1910" company, and was known as a feature. The Bijou also has an excellent Reliance picture.

At a meeting of the Currier Park Improvement society held last evening, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. F. D. Beckley; secretary, Mrs. R. W. Hooker; treasurer, Mrs. M. J. Chandler; work committee, N. S. Love, Homer Fitts, Dr. Chandler; membership committee, C. M. Willey, H. W. Whitcomb, Dr. Steele.

Elders Miller and Hank of Salt Lake City, Utah, who has been engaged in Mormon missionary work in and about the city, have gone to St. Johnsbury to remain for a time. The Mormon propaganda in Barre will henceforth be carried on under the supervision of Elders Williams and Bullock, who recently arrived from Salt Lake City.

The Hon. John Leonard, ex-mayor of Sherbrooke, will attend the Canadian club banquet and respond to the following toast: "Canada of To-day." Hon. Urbain J. Ledoux will speak upon "Hands Across the Seas and Border." Hon. John Senter will speak upon "Reciprocal Continental Relations." All are cordially invited to hear these eminent speakers.

Monday arrivals at the hotel Otis were as follows: Charles Grosvenor, Burlington; A. Ahern, L. Levin, Boston; F. L. Napsis, F. L. Denny, R. Bain, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Wakeman, London; Mrs. L. Swartz, E. D. Crosswell, New York City; G. F. Percival, Williamstown; Henry Clark, New York City; C. B. Carpenter, Bellows Falls; George Hazard, Oscar Turner, G. F. McCurdy, J. F. Ryan, Boston; M. N. Turner, New York City; A. H. Holden, Rockville, Conn.; S. W. Munton, Chicago; E. F. Crawford, Red Bank, N. J.

Makes Home Baking Easy

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure
The only baking powder
made from Royal Grape
Cream of Tartar

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

TESTING A PICTURE.

Tissot, the Famous French Painter, and His Critic.

An interesting story is told of Jacques Tissot, the great French painter. While in England he painted a beautiful religious picture and, meeting a countrywoman, asked her opinion of his work. "It's a chef d'oeuvre," she replied, giving a remarkably just and detailed appreciation of the various merits of the really splendid painting.

"Are you satisfied?" asked a friend. Tissot answered in the negative. He entirely repainted his picture, working night and day.

When finished he sent again for his fair critic, who pronounced it admirable and remained silently admiring it with smiling criticism.

"Are you satisfied?" asked the friend again when the lady had departed. "No," replied the artist, and he set to work for the third time.

When the Parisienne saw the new painting she gazed at it for some moments with evident emotion and then without a word sank softly to her knees and began to pray.

"Are you satisfied now?" whispered the friend, and Tissot said "Yes."—London Saturday Review.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

"I am looking for craps on the door," one old man told her. "They don't like to let us know here in the asylum when any one dies for fear of making us feel bad, but they put craps on the door, and by feeling for it when we pass in and out we can find out for ourselves when one of us has gone."—New York Press.

Feeling For Death.

For a week the self appointed guide to the blind on their daily walks had noticed that the two men who were her special charges felt carefully of the wall on either side of the door of the asylum when passing in and out. Since she was there to lead them, that precaution seemed not at all necessary, and she finally asked their reason for it.

New Wash Goods!

We have just filled our show window with a new lot of pretty Wash Goods. The dainty patterns and pretty colors are what you will want for the coming season.

The price is only 15 cents per yard

VEALE & KNIGHT,

N. E. Tel., 123-2. Union Tel. Adm. North Main St., Barre, Vt.

Spring Styles

Are now on exhibition at our store. Many beautiful models to select from.

Casemeres, Serges and Fancy Worsteds in the latest New York styles.

At all prices from $8.50 to $22.00.

Crossett Shoes and Oxfords now in.

The Union Clothing Store,

Telephone 123-1. Old Skating Rink Building Opposite Depot Square.

The Season's Smartest

Shoe Styles

Are Being Shown Here

No one can fail to realize beyond a doubt that this store leads in the presentation of Smart Styles for young men and young men after seeing our showing of new Spring Oxfords!

Call and examine.

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

157 North Main Street Hale's Block, Barre, Vt.

AT THE PAVILION TODAY

3—FEATURE ACTS OF VAUDEVILLE—3. HEADED BY

THE TWO SHERMANS

THE ACT BEAUTIFUL

Presenting their great European novelty, and introducing

Mille. Emman

in her Radium dance. Special setting and electrical effects.

HONAN & HEIN

America's premier eccentric comedians, with a bunch of songs, parodies and nonsense.

Extra added attraction Shaw & Blunt The Maid and The Mutt

Photoplays

Water Lilies

A Vitaphone life portrayal

MISS ESTHER HUDSON, Pianist.

ADMISSION 10 CENTS CHILDREN 5 CENTS

Paints Varnishes Wall Paper

With the line of goods I carry, and the competent men in my employ, I can guarantee you satisfaction on all work in this line.

HAVE YOU TRIED OUR CHI-NAMEL?

THE UP-TO-DATE PAINT and WALL PAPER STORE.

G. A. WILKINSON,

N. E. Telephone 231-4 46 North Main Street Barre, Vermont.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY TIMES

Boys' Carts and Wheelbarrows

A boy with a cart can do many important errands and learn to save money for himself.

We have a new and complete line and would like to have you step in and look them over.

PRICES

Carts---$1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.50.

Wheelbarrows---65c, 85c and $1.25.

C. W. AVERILL & CO.,

81 and 83 North Main Street, Barre, Vermont.

Headacheless

—a happy condition for those who have been subject to distressing headaches. It's a condition insured by the use of Kendrick's Headache Powders. Non-heart-distressing, safe, reliable. Try them. 25c.

Kendrick's Drug Store

54 North Main Street, Barre, Vermont.

AUTO CLOTHING

We think we are in a position to furnish you with anything you may need in the above line.

Auto Coats, all styles and fabrics, from $1.50 to $7.50.

Auto Caps and Hats, 50c to $3.00.

Auto Gloves, from 50